§ 101-1. Disorderly acts enumerated.

It shall be unlawful and shall constitute disorderly conduct for any person to willfully:

- A. Be guilty of a breach of the peace, vagrancy or disorderly conduct, or to engage in fighting or to incite others to fight, or to engage in any unlawful act tending to imperil the personal security of any person or to endanger or injure property within the borough.
- B. Use loud, boisterous, profane, blasphemous, indecent or immoral language upon or near any of the public highways or public places or in a manner so as to annoy residents in the neighborhood, or to make any unseemly noise or disturbance to the annoyance of the residents nearby.
- C. Commit any act of lewdness or public indecency or exposure of person, or to become intoxicated.
- D. Loaf, loiter or stand upon any of the sidewalks or other public highways or places so as to interfere with the free and full passage of residents or travelers.
- E. Set up, maintain, open or conduct any gambling place or device, immoral show, entertainment or exhibition, unlawful drinking place, resort or house of prostitution, or to be gathered in or participate in the operation of the same, or to be a patron thereof.
- F. Carry concealed any deadly weapon, unless authorized by law, or to discharge any gun or firearm, unless in defense of person or property, or to throw on or into any highway any stones, snowballs or other material, or to raise any false alarm of fire.
- G. Interfere with borough police officers, resist arrest or fail to render assistance to a police officer when called upon by him, or to tamper with, destroy or otherwise interfere with any lights, guardrails, signs or other property or materials placed in public places by the borough or any of its officials.

§ 101-2. Violations and penalties. [Amended 11-14-1967; 8-13-1974 by Ord. No. 102]

Any person who shall violate any provisions of this chapter shall, upon conviction thereof, be liable to a fine of not more than three hundred dollars ($300.) or to imprisonment in the county jail for a term of not more than thirty (30) days, or both. The continuation of such violation for each successive day shall constitute a separate offense, and the person or persons allowing or permitting the continuation of the violation may be punished as provided above for each separate offense.
